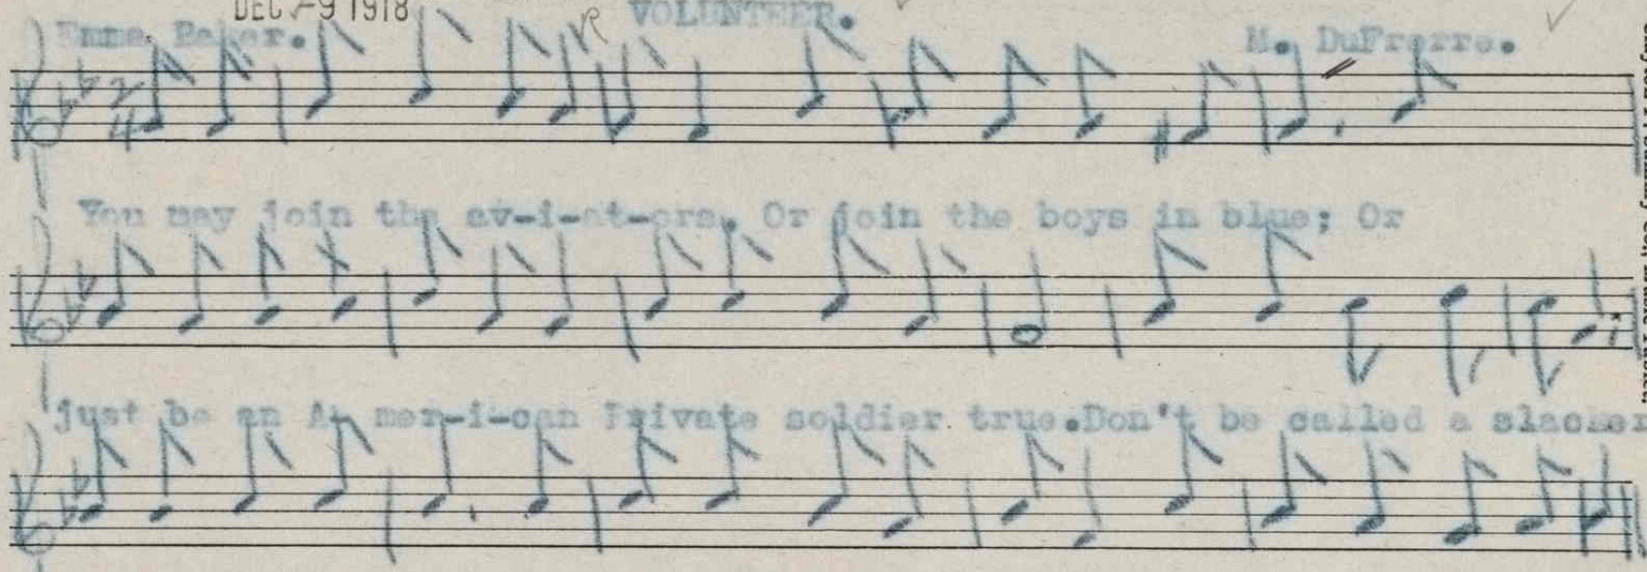
Emma Baker. VOLUNTEER. H. DuFrarre.



Clayton F. Summy Co., Music Tablet.

(2)
With Foch our leading general
And Wilson, president,
You need not fear to face the foe,
Come! join some regiment.
Rank does not count in battle,
Neither does your name;
But if your heart is brave and true,
You'll win out just the same.

(3)
You have sisters and a mother
Who love you, you're their dear;
But they'd be more proud to claim you
If you would volunteer.
You see your mother knitting,
For the boys gone "over there";
You watch your sisters sewing
With their greatest care.

(4)
How can you stand by idle,
And hear that mother's prayer
For God to save a neighbor's son
Who's fighting. Now prepare.
Help save our nation's freedom,
All that's just and right;
Want you volunteer, my lad,
And fight! and fight! and fight!
