CARRY ON FOR THE FLAG.

Grace A. Hammond. H. DuFrene.

Carry on, carry on, every man must do his part,
Carry on, carry on, for in each and every heart
There's a picture of his loved ones left behind across the sea
But the dearest thing in all our land is the dear old flag to me.

(3)

Carry on, carry on, for the man who stands for right,
Carry on, carry on, for the soldier boys who fight;
Sing and cheer your way along, for Berlin you soon will see,
But the dearest thing in all our land is the dear old flag to me.
