MOTHER, FLAG AND HOME.

Stella K. Reazar. M. DuFrerre.

There's an aching heart in every home, Where there's a mother old and gray; Who fondly clasps her loving boy, For he soon must go a-way. She tenderly holds him to her heart, He stands with manly pride, "Don't weep for me, dear mother, This flag stans by my side". (CHORUS) "Be brave, boys, and cheerful, Don't feel so sad and lone; Let us fight to win the victory, And think of those at home. And when it all is over, We shake hands in freedom's light; Re-member what we're fighting for,-"Our Mother Country's right".

How brave and patriotic,
And oh, how beautiful to see,
Between the flag and mother,
The flag that made us free.
When Uncle Sammy calls us,
Don't hesitate to go;
There's a chance for our return again
To those dear ones we know.
