The Best Advertising Medium in Colorado

FOR BUSINESS MEN.

A PAPER OF VIM, VINEGAR, VITRIOL AND ENTERPRISE.

CIRCULATES AMONG MINERS AND STOCK MEN.

We can, without fear of contradiction, pronounce the Daily Chieftain the best conducted and ably edited daily newspaper in Colorado. We write advisedly and from an intelligent standpoint. If the people of Pueblo do not most liberally sustain their first-class daily they ought to be ashamed of themselves. However, we have every reason to believe that this people will amply reward Messrs. Lambert & Co. for their journalistic enterprise.—Evening (Colorado) Independent, January 28, 1876.

The Colorado Chieftain, published at Pueblo, Colorado, is a credit to that city. It is what it pretends to be, "a paper full of vim, vinegar, vitriol and enterprise." It greets us every morning with telegraphic reports up to date, and is par excellence the best paper in Southern Colorado.—Correspondence Syracuse (New York) Journal, January 15, 1876.

We have just received a copy of the Daily Chieftain, published at Pueblo, Colorado. It is a live paper, containing the latest and most reliable information in regard to climate, soil, stock raising, mining, summer resorts, and all features peculiar to Colorado.—Charleston (Ind.) Herald, May 20, 1876.

The Colorado Chieftain is a bright, live, newsy paper, full of mining and other news, and the copy before us gives a map of the San Juan silver districts which are now being so generally discussed by speculators and diggers.—Clinton (Penn.) Republican, May 13, 1876.
