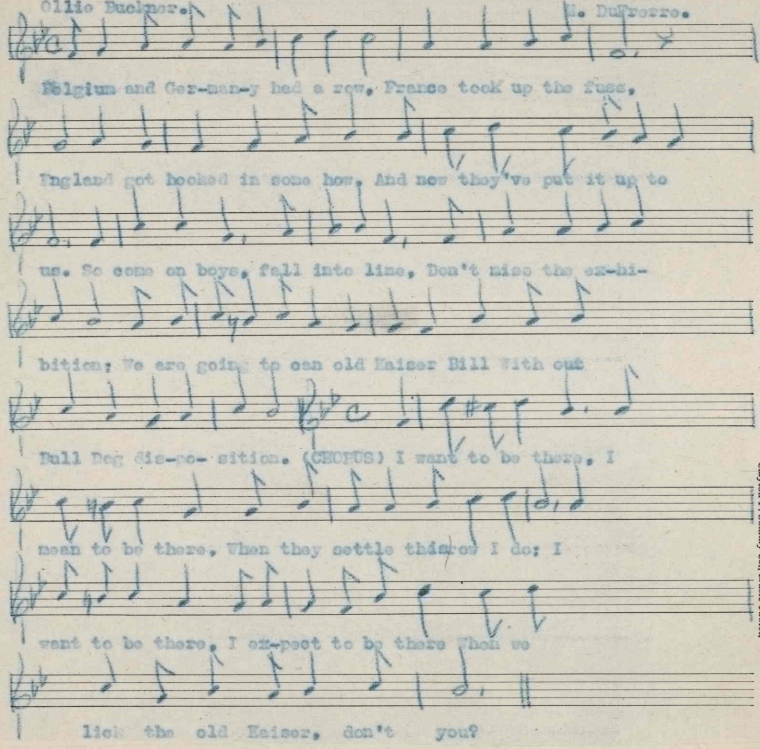
I WANT TO BE THERE, DON'T YOU?

Ollie Buckner. M. Dufresne.



(2)

When the old cannon voice is stilled,
I want to be there, I do;
For I'll know we've conquered Kaiser Bill,
I can't miss that at all, can you?
Such shouting and clapping, we'll feel so fine,
Why! you'll think we've had a toddy;
But poor old Bill, drat his time,
He'll feel worse than anybody.

Chorus.

I want to be there, I mean to be there,
When we hel-met the Kaiser I do;
I want to be there, I expect to be there,
When all helmet the Kaiser, don't you?
