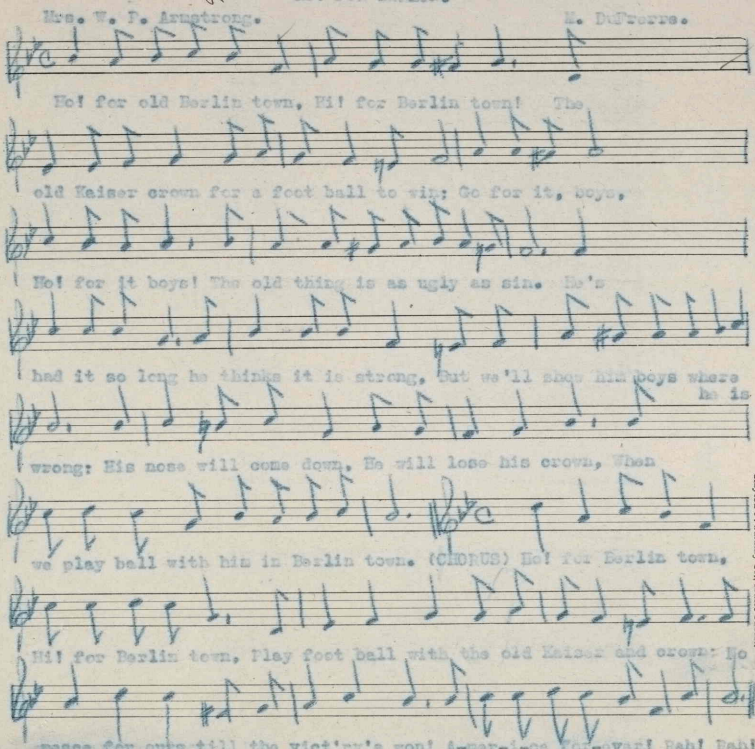
HO! FOR BERLIN.

Mrs. W. P. Armstrong. M. DuFrerre.



Clayton F. Summy Co. Music Tablet.

Call back to all the boys over there at home,
Tell them we are over here to fight it out;
Over the sea and over the U-boats Boom,
We'll soon get the old Dutch scout.
From earth and sky he'll soon know why,
His feet are getting cold, he's not so bold;
America's awake, she will hold and take
Full vengeance on the crowned old snake.

Rah! for old Berlin town, Rah! boys, Rah!
The Liberty bonds are rooting for us;
Then let the rooters rave, our courage 'twill save,
We are hungry for home and for love.
But we don't want peace till our work here is done,
We send away for Berlin town for both Hun and crown;
Harvard and Yale and Princeton too,
You need a new football, all of you.

The poor old Dutchman, he is beginning to rue
The day he dreamed he had America too;
When those Zeppelins blaze all thru the haze,
We see Uncle Sam's queer old ways.
Death to our foes, vengeance for all our woes,
When victory is ours the war will close;
No peace for ours till the victory's won,
America forever!!! Rah! Rah!
