I LOVE MY BIG BROTHER.

Maria Krause. M. DuFrette.

Maybe I should say it is more or less
Of habit I am working so hard;
But please if I May so myself express,
I am sure I am doing my part.
I know that my mother is saveing too
For the benefit of the boys in the camps;
But she thinks most of brother, she is selfish that's true,
When she buys all she can of war stamps.

(3)

I know she is selfish, of course not to blame,
She thinks that my brother sometime,
When the war is just memories, he needs just the same,
All the money she saved of dimes.
You should hear brother telling about that farm
He is going to have some day;
But now he is training his great big arm
To help get the Kaiser away.
