GOING TO BATTLE.

Mrs. A. J. Wheeler. H. DuFrerre.

We start today on one long march, A loyal, sturdy band; And never will we loiter Tillwe reach the Kaiser's land. Don't you ever dare to say there's one slacker,- all are true; For every boy among us Loves the Red, White and Blue.

CHORUS.

Come, boys, come, And join this mighty band; We're going across the water To fight for Uncle Sam.

Clayton F. Summy Co.

Now when you see Bill running
To find a place to hide,
You'll know the boys have done it,
Wont the Huns and Teutons fly!
Then if by one great war dance,
The Kaiser's head is brought
To "Sam" upon a charger,
Blood lost by us is naught.
