The Livingston Herald

HOWELL, MICHIGAN.

THOMAS W. BREWER, Publisher.

Is an Independent Weekly Newspaper, published for the people, whose appreciation of its worth has won to itself perhaps the largest circulation ever before secured by any other publication in Livingston County. The leading business men and firms of Howell use its columns 52 weeks in the year, and several at the end of a year's contract made the following statement of their own accord: "I am satisfied that my advertisements in THE LIVINGSTON HERALD has brought me better returns than they have in both the other papers taken together." The publisher is confident that he can give to all whom he can accommodate in his columns like results.

Forty Years Old But Essentially Modern.
