AMERICA'S FIRST FALL IN WORLD'S WAR.

Wm. Rannels. M. DuFrerre.

There was a sol-dier brave and true, He gave his life for the red, white and blue; F. Enright was his name, Long he'll be remembered for his honor and his fame, Hur-rah! A-mer-i-ca, for our boys brave and true, The first to fall for the red, white and blue.

CHORUS.

He leaves a dear old mother old and grey; She gave her son for his country's sake, all for the sake of the war. Her heart is full of sor-row, her eyes are filled with tears; But when she thinks of his he-ro-ic deeds, her heart is filled with cheer.

Clayton F. Summy Co. Music Tablet.

He loved his country you must know,
He was the first to Mexico to go;
Bravely stood the shot and shell,
And bravely returned home till another call was made.
To him it did not seem so well,
Thru shot and shell on the Allies' line he fell.
