©CIE459138
SEP 29 1919

"Freedom of The Seas"

Arr. by Arthur Fisk. by Esther Fleisher

VOICE

Our Fath-ers fought for free-dom of man both black & white. They We gath-er from the Moun-tain, the val-ly & the plain. With died in many different ways but al-ways for the right. And now our Na-tion stars and stripes a-bove ver us. We cross the East-ern main. We march in-to the calls us to per-form a-noth-er fight. For the free-dom, yes, The trench-es. As we sing the grand re-frain. For the free-dom, yes, The free-dom of the seas.
free-dom of the seas.

CHORUS

Wives, Moth-ers, Sis-ters, Sweet-hearts. Like-wise will do their bit. Like-wise will do their bit. No slack-ers name or act-ions. In our his-tor-y shall be.
writ.

M1646
.F

470406