© CIE 474065

Pals.

Words by Martha E. Montgomery. Music by Frank W. Ford.

I have pals in Count-less num-bers — Some mere boys Some old-- er men, Some are dear-- er than the oth-ers Some I'll nev-er see a-gain.... Some my pals are gall-ant Com-rades That stood by me in the past, When I thought my days were num-bered That each one would be the last..... There's my pal I had at Col-lege, — And the one I met by Chance,... There's my 'bun-kie on the bor-der there's my Bud-die When in France,.. Oh I've pals in Count less num-bers That will an-swer to my Call. But I tell you that my dad is Just the dear-est pal of all.

Chorus

Copyrighted 1920 By Martha E. Montgomery

431 mechanicst. Shelbyville, Indiana.

H1606
.F

485594