©CLE438047
NOV 19 1918

Freedom Land

WORDS BY

DAISY BANNERMAN COATS

MUSIC BY

DAN D. EMMETT

Published by Los Angeles Music Publishing Co.
Superba Theatre Building, Los Angeles

M1.46
.E

Freedom Land.

Words by
DAISY BANNERMAN COATS.

Melody adapted from "Dixie Land."
DAN D. EMMETT.

With Spirit.

All hail! give thanks and Our flag! three cheers and Our coun - try! land that

f

sup - pli - ca - tion, God has giv - en us a na - tion, bless'd our land, of the free, of the sal - u - ta - tion! Em-blem of our no - ble na - tion's pass - ing by, fly - ing high, makes our he-roes died for, Land of Free - dom! men have sighed for, Land of Peace, Land of Hope, for the brave, and the true. With right for all in— jus-tice nev - er, "Right is Might" al-hearts beat with pride. The red, the blood in— our veins flow-ing, Blue the truth in starved and op-pressed. May peace, that dis - cord can - not sev - er, Smile on our fair

Copyright 1918 by Daisy B. Coats. Los Angeles, Cal.

f

ways for - ev - er Free-dom's name, we pro-claim, from the sea, and the shore.—
our hearts glow - ing, And the white, is the light, that will shine, far and wide.—
land for - ev - er, May the deeds, of the strong, ease the cries, of dis - tress.—

f

CHORUS.

Our watch-word is "For Free-dom"— for one and all No— ty - rant's hand can mf f f

rule our land, We'll live or die for Free - dom, "In God we trust" to lead us on to Free - dom; "In God we trust" to lead us on to Free - dom.

Freedom Land.

443963