©CLE418798 R.
MAR -8 1918

"I'll Wait till The War is Won."

Words & Music by Walter J. Fader

Waltz Modto.

mf

I had a dream the Vir - gin it seems — anxious for I'll think of you I'll long for you too, While you are p

me here be - low — looked down from a - bove, I o - ver the sea — While you're o - ver there, bear showed her the love Here in my heart a — up and be square and do your share for Copyrighted 1918 by Walter J. Fader

H1646
F

glow ——— Just as she spoke to me ——— I'll do my part here me I a - woke, Then dear I felt as, with all my heart, all that I do will though My Ro - sa - ry most surely would be all for the lad who gave all he be like hers of long a - go had so we would all be free

Refrain

If Ma-ry the vir-gin should whis-per pp

a word from the hea-vens of blue to you here be-low she'd tell you I know that she loved just like I love you Though it makes my heart ache with long - ing your duty must be done for all that we were planning to be I'll wait 'till the war is won. is won.

426722