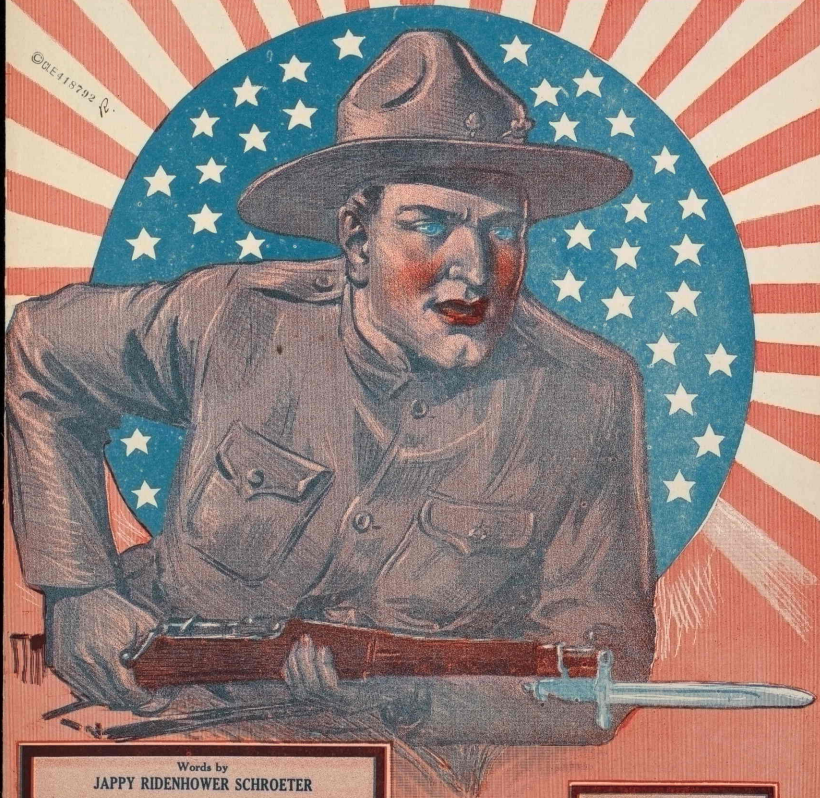
FEB 23 1918

Some-where in France



Words by
JAPPY RIDENHOWER SCHROETER

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

11646
.F

NORTH AMERICAN MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
119 No. Clark St. Chicago, Ill.

SOME-WHERE IN FRANCE

Words by
JAPPY RIDENHOWER SCHROETER

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

Marcia

We are a na - tion strong and A mother bade her one son true, There is a work for us to do, Our go, Wil - ling he should fight the foe, And at boys in France, Old Glo - ry wav - ing, Are brave - ly fight - ing night be - fore she goes to bed, A pray'r for safe - ty and homes sav - ing: Man - y eyes are watch - ing them ad - to God is said. Man - y oth - er moth - ers still their vance, On the en - e - mies lines in France.

fears; Pray - ing to a lov - ing God that hears.

Copyright MCMXVIII by Jappy Ridenhower Schroeter

CHORUS

Some-where in France my boy is fight - ing, Fight-ing for his coun-try's sake and mine, Some-where in France in din-gy tren - ches, He's work-ing for Old Glo-ry's col-ors fine, And the day they say the war is o - ver, And my boy need part from me no more, My heart and soul will lift its thanks, At the coming of my boy from France. France.

fz

426726