FEB 23 1918 ©CLE 417878

Three Cheers

Words by PHILIP L. HAIMS

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

NORTH AMERICAN MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
119 No. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

THREE CHEERS

Words by PHILIP L. HAIMS

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

March Time

f

Lis - ten to a sto - ry, I have to tell, Of our men on the
They have gone to fight,— A - gainst the foe, For our flag the—— bat - tle field 'midst shot and shell; They're fight - ing for our free - dom and stars and stripes our men will go, Our men will march— for - ward 'gainst the do - ing their full share, Come let 'er go, three cheers for them o - ver there.

foe to do or die, Three cheers for you A - mer - i - cans, with flag on high.

A 50-2

Copyright MCMXVIII by Philip L. Haims

CHORUS

Three cheers for our flag the stars and stripes, Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue, Three cheers for the men in oth-er lands, Three cheers for our coun - try too, Our boys have left their loved ones to fight a-gainst the foe, With our flag wav - ing be - fore them, to vic - to - ry they'll go, Three cheers a-gain, for our men, let her ring with loud huz-zah, They are fighting for the free-dom of ev'- ry one, Hur - rah, Hur - rah.

ff

426368