LEAD.
JAN 23 1918
©CLE418503

WHEN IT COMES TO A

LOVINGLESS DAY.

WORDS AND MUSIC BY JACK FROST.

All Ho.

VAMP.

Years ago a man named Sherman said that war was - WELL! — I'd Sherman said a page full when he said that war was - WELL! — The tell you but I never talk that way; — He'd find out that those place where Kaiser Wilhelm soon will go; — 'Twas said before the words he spoke were far from being any joke if he could see our troubles here to-war began and Sherman was a married man so you'll admit that Sherman ought to day. — Now, each day that comes, I guess, is something or oth - er - less be-know. — When each day is kiss - less day for me and my miss - tress, Say! then cause of that war 'cross the sea, — But will I find I'm miss - in' all my

I will be rea - dy for war, — And I'll fight for my lov - in' and my

M1646
.F

Copyright, MCMXVIII, by Frank K. Root & Co.
British Copyright secured

huggin' and kiss - in', Gee! that's what is trouble — ing me. — sweet turtle dov - in', Till I get them both back once more. —

CHOS.

For Tuesdays are meat - less and Wednesdays are wheatless, My room it is heat - less, my bed it is sheet - less, Now I don't care if all the bars are treatless,

Or if I must even sleep and eat less; Kisses are sweet - less, my stockings are feet - less, I'm worried till my hair is grey; — For what will I do if they pull something new, And it comes to a lov - ing - less day. — For day. —

1. 2.

D. S.

421167