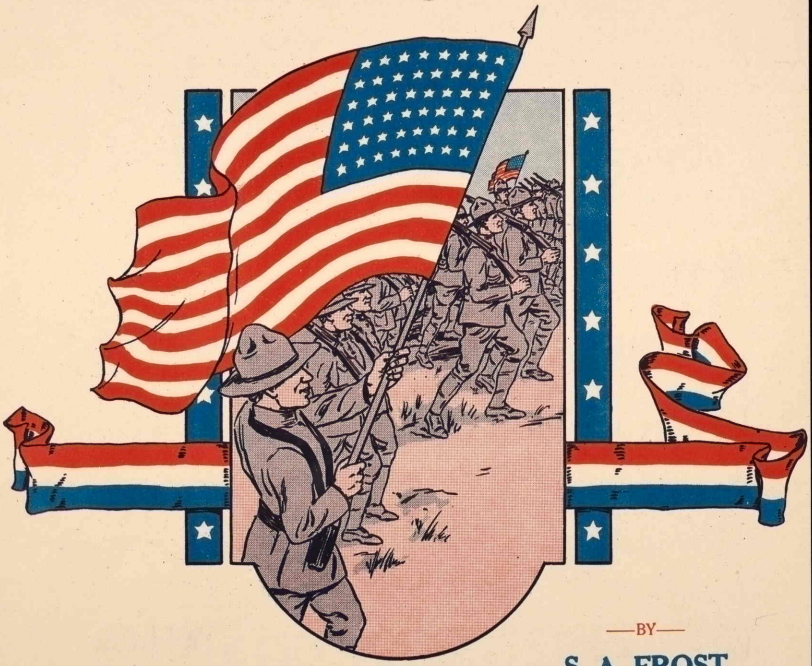
©CIE454076
JUN 14 1919

SUNG WITH GREAT SUCCESS DURING THE 4TH LIBERTY LOAN CAMPAIGN

STAND BY THE FLAG



—BY—

S. A. FROST

PUBLISHED BY FRONTIER PUBLISHING CO.,
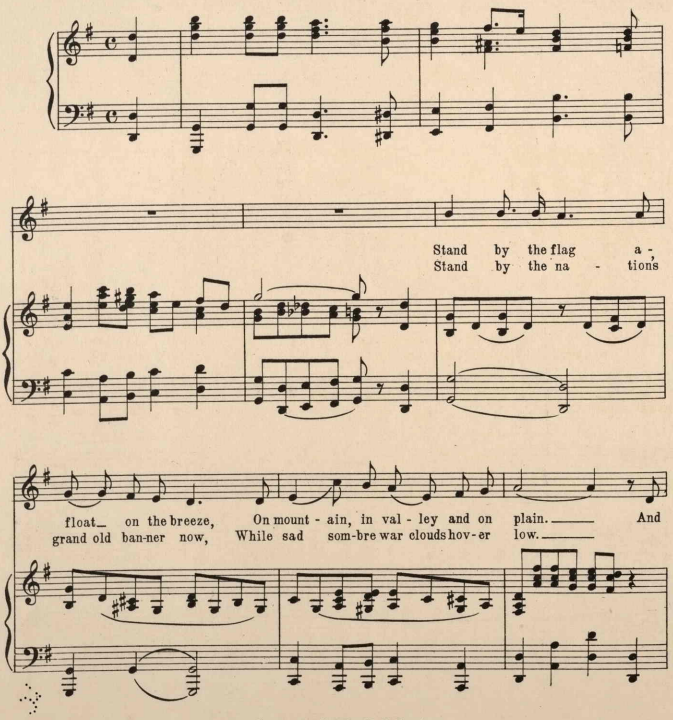
EASTPORT, MAINE.

H1646
.F

"STAND BY THE FLAG"

S. A. FROST



Copyright 1919 by S. A. Frost

wav - ing in beauty to - day on the seas, 'Bove brav - est of ships on the Fight if you must and nev - er al - low, Her hon - or as - sail - ed by the main. None fair - er, none brav - er than she ev - er flung, Their foe. For - get not her glo - ri - ous re - cord of yore, Cling folds to the breast of the gale. No - oth - er by bard has so to her and shield her from aye! Yes firm - ly more firm - ly than grand - ly been sung, Nor praised in his - to - ri - ans tale.

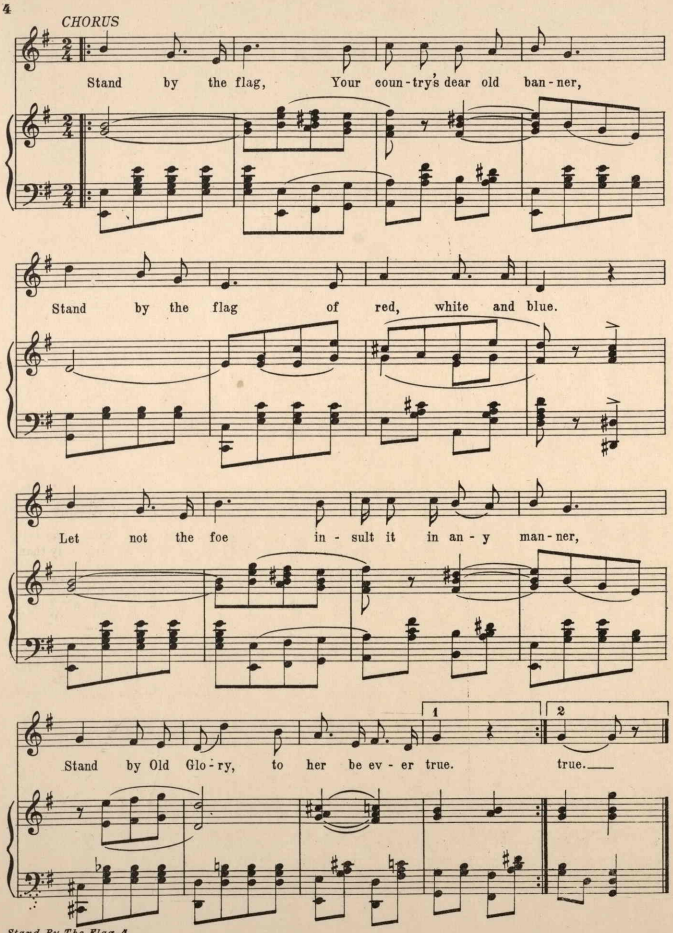
ev - er be - fore, Pro - tect her high hon - or to - day.



CHORUS
Stand by the flag, Your coun-try's dear old ban-ner,
Stand by the flag of red, white and blue.
Let not the foe in-sult it in an-y man-ner,
Stand by Old Glo-ry, to her be ev-er true. true.
1
2

CHORUS
(Male Quartette)

1st TENOR

2nd TENOR

BARITONE
Melody

BASS

Stand by the flag,— Your coun-try's dear old ban-ner Stand by the

Stand by the flag, Your coun-try's dear old ban-ner Stand by the flag of red, white and blue. Let not the foe— in-flag of red, white and blue. Let not the foe insult it in an-y man-ner, Stand by Old Glo-ry To her be ev-er true.

sult it in an-y man-ner, Stand by Old Glo-ry To her be ev-er true.

461852