Copy
©CLE437370 R
NOV 26 1918

by Earl Fuller

When the Old Boat Heads for Home

Tempo di Marcia

Vamp.

Voice

Moth - ers and Sweet - hearts and dads — Wait - ing for news won't ev - ry bo - dy feel proud — can you imag -

from your lads — You have no rea - son to feel ine the crowd — 'Twill be the great - est ev - er

M1646
F

ART BRAND No. 10. 1918 Broadway Music Corp
145 W. 45 st N. Y.

blue — For soon they'll be back home with you — Know — To welcome all the boys back home —

Bravely our Sons — have all fought —
We've never lost — in a fight —

Vic- t'ry and peace — they have brought — And when the good Ships
We nev- er fight — till we're right — Our boys don't Know de — starts to Sail o'er the sea — we Know that a time — there will feat, and they never will — We've proved that to off — Kai-ser

Chorus (not fast)

be — Bill — rall

When the old boat — heads for pf

home —

(Whistle)

Ploughing her way — thru' the foam —

Ev'ry one hap — py, and ev'ry one gay —

hats in the air — Yell — ing, Hip-Hip-Hoo ray —

oh! what a crowd

COPYRIGHT MCMXVIII BY BROADWAY MUSIC CORP
145 W. 45 st N.Y.C. N.Y

— at the pier (whistle) watching the boat — drawing near — — thru' out the nat — ion, Some cé le — brat — ion when the old boat heads for 1. home — 2. home —