

IV. ROBERT PAGE, OF BROADNECK, Hanover County, Virginia, third and last surviving son and child of Hon. Mann Page, Esqr., of Rosewell, Gloucester County, Virginia, and Judith Carter, his second wife (by whom alone he had surviving male issue), second and only surviving child of Hon. Matthew Page, of the same place, and Mary Mann his wife, second (and only son having male issue) of Col. John Page, of England, and Williamsburg, James City County, Virginia, progenitor of the Page family in Virginia, and Alice Luckin, his wife, was born at the second-named place about 1722, and died suddenly at the first-named place, upon returning from a ride on horseback, about the year 1768, aged 46. He founded the Broadneck House, Hanover County, Virginia, about 1750. It was destroyed by fire during the war of the Revolution, his two sons, Robert and John, being youths at that time.

His son Robert probably rebuilt the house, after the war, while others of the family removed to Clarke County, Virginia.

He married, 20th January, 1750, at the age of about 28 years, Sarah Walker, sister of Clara Walker, who married Allen. The portrait of Clara Walker is said to be at Clairmont, the Allen residence, on James River, Virginia. The two sisters Walker were co-heiresses, and daughters of an English gentleman.

The children of Robert Page and Sarah Walker were:

1. Mann Page (No. 1), born at Broadneck, Hanover County, Virginia, 26th October, 1750; died infant.
2. Robert Page, Jr., eldest survivor, born at the same place 15th June, 1752; married, in 1799, Mary Braxton, of Chérickoke, King William County, Virginia.
3. Mann Page (No. 2), born 1754; died infant.
4. Judith Page, born 15th October, 1756; married, about 1776, John (?) Waller. Children:
 - (1) Sarah Waller; married, about 1806, Richard Byrd.
 - (2) Benjamin Waller; married, about 1814, Miss Travis.
 - (3) Martha H. Waller; married, first, about 1810, William Montague; and, secondly, Joseph H. Travis.
 - (4) John Waller; married, about 1818, Miss Greenhow.
