

1. William Byrd Page, eldest, born about 1788; married, first, about 1813, Evelyn Byrd Nelson; and secondly, Eliza M. Atkinson.
2. Nancy Page, born about 1790; died infant.
3. Sarah W. Page, born about 1792; married, in 1815, Major Thomas M. Nelson, of Mecklenburg County, Virginia, who was a grandson of Secretary Thomas Nelson, of Yorktown, Virginia. She died 1835, aged about 43. (See Nelson.)
4. Dr. Robert Powell Page, born 11th January, 1799; married, first, about 1819, Mary Francis; and secondly, about 1839, Susan G. Randolph.
5. Judge John E. Page, born 11th March, 1795; married, 1823, Emily McGuire.
6. Abby B. Page, born August, 1798; married, about 1816, John Hopkins, of Winchester, Frederick County, Virginia, whom she survived. Their children were:
 - (1) William E. Hopkins, Commodore U. S. Navy.
 - (2) John Hopkins, Jr.; died unmarried.
 - (3) Dr. St. George Hopkins; married, first, about 1859, Miss Brown, of Philadelphia, and had one child—a daughter. He married, secondly, about 1868, Miss Cunningham, of Baltimore, Maryland, and has three children. He removed, with his family, to California.
7. Mary W. Page, born 1800; married, 1816, Benjamin Harrison, of Berkeley (Harrison's Landing), Charles City County, Virginia, and died in Richmond, 1865, aged 65. She was buried at Pagebrook, Clarke County, Virginia. Children:
 - (1) Lucy Harrison; unmarried; resided in Clarke County, Virginia.
 - (2) Henry Harrison; married, about 1845, Fannie Tab Burwell, daughter of George H. Burwell, of Carter Hall, Clarke County, Virginia.
 - (3) Benjamin Harrison, Jr.; married, about 1850, Mattie, daughter of Dr. Matthew Page, of Clarke County, Virginia, and Polly Randolph, his wife. Dr. Matthew Page was the eldest son of Gwynn Page, of Kentucky, who was the fourth child of Mann Page, of Rosewell, and Anne Corbin Tayloe, his second wife. (See Rosewell.)
 - (4) Maria Harrison; died single.
 - (5) Evelyn Harrison, ditto.
8. Dr. Matthew Page, youngest; born at Pagebrook, Clarke County, Virginia, 1801; removed to Edenton, Chowan County, North Carolina. He married, first, 1829, Mary Matilda, daughter of Josiah Collins, of