

likeness—according to a letter written by his brother, the late Judge John E. Page, of Pagebrook, Clarke County, Virginia. He married, first, about 1819, Mary, daughter of Thomas Willing Francis, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Their children were as follows, viz:

1. Maria B. Page, born about 1820; married, about 1840, Mayhew Wainwright, of New York City, and had four children, viz:
 - (1) Elizabeth (called "Lizzie") Wainwright; married, about 1860, John Page Burwell, of Clarke County, Virginia.
 - (2) Mayhew Wainwright, Jr., Lieutenant U. S. Navy, killed by pirates on the Pacific coast.
 - (3) Robert Wainwright, U. S. Army.
 - (4) Maria Wainwright, born about 1847; married, about 1867, Henry Slaughter, of New York City, and was an actress—her nom-de-théâtre being Fannie Louise Buckingham.
2. Dora W. Page, born about 1822; married, about 1842, Nathaniel Burwell, of Clarke County, Virginia.
3. Nancy F. Page, born about 1824; married, about 1844, Joseph Pleasants, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Dr. Robert Powell Page, of Saratoga, Clarke County, Virginia, married, secondly, about 1839, Susan Grymes, daughter of Archie Randolph, of the same county, and Susan Burwell, of Carter Hall, same county, his wife. Archie Randolph was the eldest son of Thomas Isham Randolph, of Dungeness, Goochland County, Virginia. (See Randolph.) The children by the second marriage were:

1. Elizabeth B. Page, born about 1840; died, unmarried, at Cobham Park, Albemarle County, Virginia, during the summer of 1863, aged about 23 years.
2. Mary Francis Page, born about 1842; married, about 1867, John Esten Cooke, author, of Clarke County, Virginia. She died in 1868; no surviving issue known.
3. Lucy B. Page, born about 1844; married, in 1868, Captain William P. Carter, of Clarke County, Virginia. There are several children.
4. Robert Powell Page, Jr., born at Saratoga, Clarke County, Virginia, about 1846; remained there. He married, about 1870, Agnes, daughter of George H. Burwell, of Carter Hall, same county, and Agnes Atkinson, his wife.
