III. COL. WILLIAM NELSON, OF THE DORRILL, Hanover County, Virginia, eldest son and child of Secretary Thomas Nelson, of Yorktown, York County, Virginia, and Lucy Armistead, his wife; second son and third child of Thomas Nelson, known as Scotch Tom, of England and Yorktown, Hanover County, Virginia, progenitor of the Nelson Family in Virginia, and Margaret Reid, his first wife, was born at Yorktown, Virginia, 17th June, 1746, and died 25th Nov., 1807, aged 61 years.

He was educated in England, with his first cousin, Gov. Thomas Nelson, of Yorktown, Virginia. He was present at the battles of Monmouth and Brandywine, and all the Northern battles in which Washington's army was engaged. He was also present at the siege of Yorktown, Virginia, in October, 1781, with the rank of Colonel of Infantry in the American Army. He married, 24th November, 1770, Lucy, daughter of Col. Chiswell and Elizabeth Randolph, his wife, who was probably a daughter of Councillor William Randolph, of "Chatsworth," and afterwards of "Willow Branch," both in Henrico County, Virginia. Lucy Chiswell was born 3d August, 1752, and died 14th April, 1810, aged 58 years. They had the following children:

1. Lucy Nelson, born at The Dorrill, Hanover County, Virginia, 13th September, 1771; married, 13th November, 1809, William Meaux, of New Kent County, Virginia, and died without issue, 15th September, 1824.
2. Elizabeth Nelson, born 18th May, 1773; died single.
3. Caroline Nelson (No. 1), born 18th May, 1775; died 6th July, same year.
4. NORBORNE THOMAS NELSON, ELDEST SON, born at The Dorrill, Hanover County, Virginia, 29th August, 1776; married, about 1801, his first cousin, Lucy, daughter of Major John Nelson, of Oakhill, Mecklenburg County, Virginia.
5. Warner Lewis Nelson, born 28th December, 1777; died, 29th April, 1785.
6. Sally Cary Nelson, born 6th April, 1780; married, first, 1799, Charles Page, of Hanover town, Virginia. (See Page Family, Rosewell.) She
