

- of Millwood, Clarke County, Virginia. (See Randolph.) Susan R. Nelson, the widow Wellford, married, secondly, Philip Burwell, of Chapel Hill, Clarke County, Virginia. He died 11th Feb., 1849, and she died 27th Dec., 1869, aged 78 years.
16. Hugh Nelson (14 and 15, died infants, names unknown), born at The Dorrill, Hanover County, Virginia; married, about 1818, Elizabeth H. Mirige. He died, 1st April, 1862, aged 69. His wife was of Wyanoke, on James River, Charles City County, Virginia. She was a great-niece of William Henry Harrison, President of the United States of America, and granddaughter of Benjamin Harrison, of Berkeley (Harrison's Landing), on James River, Virginia, who was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. Children:
- (1) Sally Nelson; single.
 - (2) Lucy Nelson; single.
 - (3) Fanny P. Nelson; married, about 1860, Charles Carter, who resides near Shirley, on James River, Virginia, and has several children.
 - (4) Hugh Nelson; married, about 1865, Maria, daughter of John Selden, near Westover, on James River, Charles City County, Virginia, and had one child, viz: William Nelson.
 - (5) Mary Nelson.
 - (6) William R. Nelson; removed to Selma, Alabama, and married, about 1867, Octavia Stevens, of Tennessee.
17. Armistead Nelson, youngest, born at "The Dorrill," Hanover County, Virginia, 11th February, 1795; became an officer in the U. S. Navy, under Commodore Decatur. He afterwards resigned, and became a merchant. He married, about 1820, Mary Henderson, of Fredericksburg, Virginia, and had one son, viz:
- (1) Dr. William A. Nelson, U. S. Navy; married, about 1846, Mary Moncure, of Stafford County, Virginia.

III. MAJOR JOHN NELSON, of Oak Hill, Mecklenburg County, Virginia, second son and third child of Secretary Thomas Nelson, of Yorktown, York County, Virginia, and Lucy Armistead, his wife, was born at Yorktown, Virginia, about 1748. When the war of the American Revolution commenced, he entered the American army, and rose to the rank of Major of Infantry. He married, about 1773, Nancy, daughter of John Carter, a merchant of Williamsburg, James City County, Virginia. They are said to have had a large family; but the following names only are known.