AUG - 1 1918 ©CLE429014

Listen To The Chimes Of Trinity

By Frank Gillis

THEO. BENDIX MUSICAL BUREAU COLUMBIA THEATRE BL'DG, NEW YORK

Slow with feeling

Voce

The scene is just down
Re - mem - ber boy I'm

8vo

Vamp 8vo

(Chimes)

Brood - way, By Old Trin - i - ty.... I'm stand - ing near a gray haired talk - ing, Way back "Six - ty One" We then had trimb - led times like

M1646
.G

TRADE MELODIE MARK No. 0

man. The chimes ring out their sweet mel- o- dy....
now. We heard the call with sword and with gun....

He waits hat- in hand.... Then to a sol- dier pass- ing Bound to keep our vow.... We passed down here, I'll nir for-by, he said; "I heard those bells be- fore. O ring get, Old Trin- i- ty went to our souls. They ring

Chimes, Wait here boy and,
now For us once more,

Chors

Lis-ten to the Chims of Trin-i-ty..... They sing the same to Pay ... A- gain they bring the chin of years gone by when I went marching down Broad-way ... They ring for you now Son, And when you're done ... Your share for Li-ber-ty ..... You need have no fear, You're heart will beat as clear, As the Chimes of Old Fren-i-ty ..... D.C.

8vo

D.C.

436255