

Albemarle County, Virginia. She died at Turkey Hill, 7th February, 1873, aged 74 years. (See Page Family, North End.)

2. Thomas Hugh Walker, only son, born 1800; died, infant, in 1805, aged 5 years.
3. Judith Page Walker, born at Castle Hill, Albemarle County, Virginia, 24th March, 1802; married, 24th March, 1819, Hon. William C. Rives, U. S. Senator from Virginia. She died at Castle Hill, where she resided, 23d January, 1882, aged 80 years. Children:
 - (1) Francis Robert Rives, eldest, of New York City, born at Castle Hill, 1822. He was Secretary of the U. S. Legation, in London, 1842-1845, when Hon. Edward Everett was Minister there, during President Tyler's Administration. Married, 1848, Matilda Antonia, only child of George Barclay, of New York City. They had: (a) George Lockhart Rives; married, 1873, Caroline Kean, of Elizabeth City, New Jersey, and has issue; (b) Ella Louisa Rives; married, 1875, David King, Jr., of Newport, R. I., and has children; (c) Francis R. Rives, Jr.; married, 1879, Georgia Fellows, of New York City, who died without issue; (d) Constance Rives; (e) Maud Rives, twin sister to Constance; married, May, 1882, Walker Breese Smith, of New York City; (f) Reginald William Rives.
 - (2) William Cabell Rives, of Newport, R. I., born at Castle Hill, in 1825, married, 1849, Grace Winthrop Sears, of Boston, Mass. Children: (a) Dr. William C. Rives, married, 1876, Mary F. Rhineland, of New York City; (b) Alice Rives; (c) Arthur Landon Rives.
 - (3) Alfred Landon Rives, born in 1830, removed to Mobile, Alabama. Vice-President of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad. He graduated with distinction at the école des ponts et chaussées, Paris. He served with General Meigs in the construction of the new wing of the Capitol at Washington, D.C., in 1859-60. He married, 1859, Sadie, daughter of James B. McMurdo, of Richmond, Virginia. Children: (a) Amélie Louise Rives; (b) Gertrude Rives, and (c) Sadie Rives.
 - (4) Amélie Louise Rives, born in Paris, 8th July, 1832. She was named after the wife of Louis Philippe, who was a great friend of the family. She married, 1854, Henry Sigourney, of Boston, Mass. They, with three children and nurse, were lost on board the ill-fated steamship, Ville du Havre, 22d November, 1873, leaving one survivor, Henry Sigourney, Jr.