

ginia, progenitor of the Randolph Family in Virginia, and Mary Isham, his wife, was born at Turkey Island, Virginia, about 1695.

He married, about 1720, Jane, daughter of John Bolling, of Bollingbrook, Chesterfield County, Virginia, and Mary Kennon, his wife. Jane Bolling was of the fourth generation in descent from Pocahontas. Richard Randolph and Jane Bolling, his wife, had:

1. Richard Randolph, Jr., born at Curl's Neck, about 1721; married, about 1746, Anne, daughter of David Meade, of Nansemond County, Virginia.
2. Mary Randolph, born at Curl's Neck, about 1727; married, 31st May, 1744, Col. Archibald Cary, of Amphill, Chesterfield County, Virginia. Of their children, Mary Cary (called "Polly"), married Major Carter Page, of The Fork, Cumberland County, Virginia, and was his first wife.
3. Jane Randolph, born about 1729; married, about 1750, Anthony Walke, of Princess Anne County, Virginia. Their son was Rev. Anthony Walke.
7. John Randolph (there were three others before him), born at Curl's Neck, Henrico County, Virginia, about 1737; removed to Cawson's, probably the same county. He married, about 1769, Frances, daughter of Theodrick Bland, and had:
 - (1) Richard Randolph, of Bizarre, born about 1770; married, 1790, his cousin Judith, daughter of Thomas Mann Randolph, of Tuckahoe.
 - (2) Theodrick Randolph, born 1771; died 1792, single.
 - (3) JOHN RANDOLPH, OF ROANOKE, Charlotte County, Virginia, born 3d June, 1773. Died unmarried, in Philadelphia, 24th May, 1833. He was buried at Roanoke, his residence, in Charlotte County, Virginia, but his remains have since been removed to Holywood Cemetery, Richmond, Virginia.
