FEB 19 1919 ©ΔE444283

One of the Boys Over There

By

FLOSSIE GORBET

PUBLISHED BY Delmar Music Co.
CHICAGO

One of the Boys Over There

FLOSSIE GORBET

Allegretto

mf

There's a moth - ers brown-eyed boy O - ver there a - cross the foam
There's a sail - or boy in blue O - ver on the big blue pond

p

Who will greet with price - less joy An - y - thing that comes from home; He is Who yearns for his sweet-heart true, Wheth-er brun-ette or a blonde; He sac - ri - fi - cing ev - 'ry - thing to pro - tect our U. S. A.

writes her a long let - ter Says: "Be pa - tient dear and true,

And we'll sac - ri - fice most an - y - thing For the boy who is far a - way.
For God is watch - ing o'er us, And he will bring me back to you."

Copyright 1919 by Flossie Gorbet

CHORUS

He is one of the boys o - ver there, Way down
He is one of the boys o - ver there, Way down

mf

in his heart is a pray'r For fa - ther and in his heart is a pray'r For fa - ther and

moth - er, for sis - ter and broth - er, And one for his sweet - heart
moth - er, for sis - ter and broth - er, And one for his sweet - heart fair While ly - ing in the trench With the Brit - ish and the fair While he aims at sub - ma - rines And the Kai - ser's air ma-

French, He's glad that he is one of the boys o - ver there.
chines, He's glad that he is one of the boys o - ver there.

453619