DEC 18 1917
©CLE416263

Over the Top

Words by Mrs. J.C. Groshut.
Music by Jos. Arnold & Mrs. J.C. Groshut

Vamp

Voice

There's a Kais-er ov-er, there, who thinks he is a
And as soon as you are through, Bill Kais-er and his Bear, but Bear meat is sweet to the Yan-kees ov-er here. So the crew, will Beg you for peace which he wants to force on you, so go Huns ov-er there had Bet-ter Be-ware of our Sail-or Lads and Af-ter the Hun and you'll make him run for our Sail-or Lads and Sold-iers in Kha-ki and in Blue, ov-er the top, Lads, ov-er the Sold-iers will shure make them go some

Chos.

Top, Lick them so bad that they'll beg you to stop, Unc-le Sam is Back-ing you with mon-ey and guns, so don't come back 'til you've wiped out the Huns. Huns

M1646
.G

4226 8