MAY 23 1917 ©JE 405392

MARCH SONG

"When Orders Come To Go"

(Novelty War Ballad)

Words by

REGÀ - FARRAN

Music by

FRED. W. HAGER

~~F. WALLACE REGÀ~~

Published by
F. WALLACE REGÀ
145 W. 45th St. N.Y. City

M1646
.H

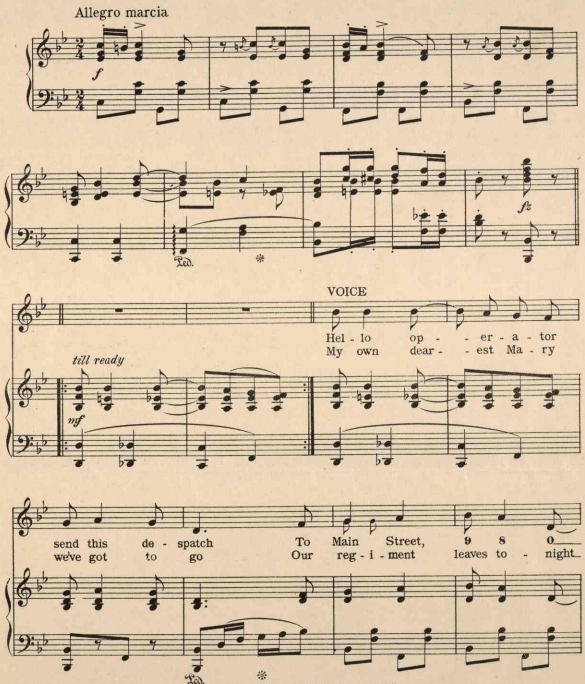
MARCH SONG

When Orders Come To Go

A Novelty War Ballad

Words by
REGA'-FARRAN

Music by
FRED. W. HAGER



Copyright 1917 by F. Wallace Regá N.Y.C.
The Publishers reserve the right to the use of this Music or Melody for any Mechanical Instruments International Copyright Secured All Rights Reserved. Albert & Son, Australian Agents, Sidney.

Start it "Dear - est Ma - - ry I am Don't fear, I'll not fal - - ter, for my leav - ing for the front" End it "Yours for - - ev - er, Cor - pral first and fond - est thought Will be Yours for - - ev - er through the rall. a tempo

Joe" P. S. Just say I'll write Be - fight Good - bye, I nev - er knew, Till

rall. a tempo

fore we march to night.
now how I love you.

mf

f

CHORUS

The tel-e-graph is click-ing click click click When or-ders

p p-f

come to go The tel-e-phones are ring-ing ting-a-

Ped. * Ped. *

ling ting-a-ling ting-a-ling And my heart is call-ing too Pret-ty

Ma-ry I love you The wire-less is flash-ing to war-ships in the

Slow bay Un-der way at break of day Though it p Slow
a tempo breaks my heart to grieve you Good-bye girl-ie I must leave you The
a tempo
tel-e-graph goes click click The wire-less goes squick squick When or-ders come to go. The go.
1.
2.
f fz

406737