OCT 17 1917
©CLE 410926

When the Sun Goes Down
(O'er the Fighting Line)

Lyric by Ed. Farran
Music by Fred. H. Hager

There's a cer-tain lit-tle girl who is far a-way In

I-o-wa In the U. S. A.

I can't for-get her And when I write a let-ter, I al-ways end it this way.

Chos. All° Mod^to

When the sun goes down O'er the fighting line, When the din of the bat-tle is o'er In the camp-fire's gleam-ing, I'm fond-ly dream-ing Of you, the girl I a-dore. My slower

Gen-e-vieve, sweet Gen-e-vieve In all my dreams, your fair face beams, When the

a tempo

sun goes down At the close of day

O'er the fight-ing line.

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 4—12 lines.

M1646
.H

415851