NOV 30 1918

Dont Forget You Belong to the U. S. A.

©LE438412

Words and Music by Hank Hall
Harrisburg Pa.

Moderato

f

You may make a pile of mon-ey, You may Be a boost-er for your home town, Keep a-

rit. mf

win a lot of fame. You may gain re-nown and live the lo-cal pride, Sing the prais-es of your glo-ry. If you're skil-ful at the game. And a home state, sound its glo-ries far and wide. Nev-er dim et rit. a tempo

Made in U. S. A. for
The B. F. Wood Music Co., Boston, New York, Leipzig, London

M1646
.H

Place that's high and might-y, May be yours some hap-py fat-ter an de-vo-tion, And be lov-al ev-ry

day. But don't for-get, oh, don't for-get, you be-
day. But don't for-get, oh, don't for-get, you belong to the U. S. A. Don't for-get, don't for-get, you belong to the U. S. A.

Chorus

dim et rit.

long to the U. S. A. No mat-ter where you be on cresc.

land or on the sea, At home or far a- way. Don't for-cresc.
get, don't for- get, You've a no- ble part to play ev- ery day, And your heart should feel a glow, For it's glo- ry just to know you belong to the U. S. A. Don't for- A.
1
2
f f rit.

445553