ON OUR WAY TO GERMANY

©CLE413494

THE AMERICAN WAR SONG

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

WILLIAM HENRY GRUMPELT

AMERICAN SONG PUBLISHING COMPANY,
P. O. BOX A, STATEN ISLAND, N. Y.

5

PUBLISHED BY AMERICAN SONG PUBLISHING CO

COPYRIGHT 1917 BY W H GRUMPELT

On our way to Germany

Words and Music by
WILLIAM HENRY GRUMPELT

Alla Marcia

f Bugle call

1. Don't you hear that bu - gle call! We must an - swer one and
2. Hear the tramp of march-ing feet, Hear the war drums loud - ly all It's now our na - tion need's us, Ev - 'ry man must prove he's beat This strife's been forced up - on us, For the free - dom of the true, Un - cle Sam is in the right, Ger - man - y shall feel his world, Give that Yan - kee bat - tle yell, O'er the noise of shot and

Copyrighted 1917, by William H. Grumpelt

might, Don't be a slack-er, do your bit for our Red, White and Blue.
shell, Help keep the dear old Stars and Stripes for - ev - er more un furled.
Chorus
For we're on our way to Ger-man-y, We must help to put the Prus-sian ty-rants down, And we won't come back from Ger- man- y, Till we've hocked the Kai- ser's crown. We'll cross the broad At - lan - tic, Yes we'll cross a mil - lion strong, So we're 1.
2.
on our way to Ger-man-y, To Ger-man-y, so long. For we're long.
Fine

AMERICAN SONG PUBLISHING COMPANY,
P. O. BOX A, STATEN ISLAND, N. Y

420698