GIVE THREE CHEERS FOR OUR BOYS OF THE NATIONAL GUARD.

Lyric by Jas. J. Sheehan. Music by H. O. Hennemann.

-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-

REC'D.
JUN 20 1917

Our Guardsmen showed this nation, they're heroes every one;
When called for mobalization, they went and got their gun,
And anxiously awaiting, was every mother's son.
For had there been invasion, you bet that they'd fight some.
So let us show our praise for our soldier boys so brave.

19709 JUN 20 1917

CHORUS.

Give three cheers for our boys of the National Guard,
Before defending our honor in France.
They'll fight, yes, every man, for their dear old Uncle Sam,
And the Allies will feel proud of our Yanks.
And may God bless them all, they have answered the call
Of Old Glory and all her stars.
Let this great U. S. of A. all shout hip, hip, hooray,
Three cheers for the National Guard.

Now that our relations have broke with Germany,
This glorious creation will show no sympathy.
For this awful situation must be stopped upon the seas,
As our great consolation is, we must have liberty,
And every real American, by our President will stand.
