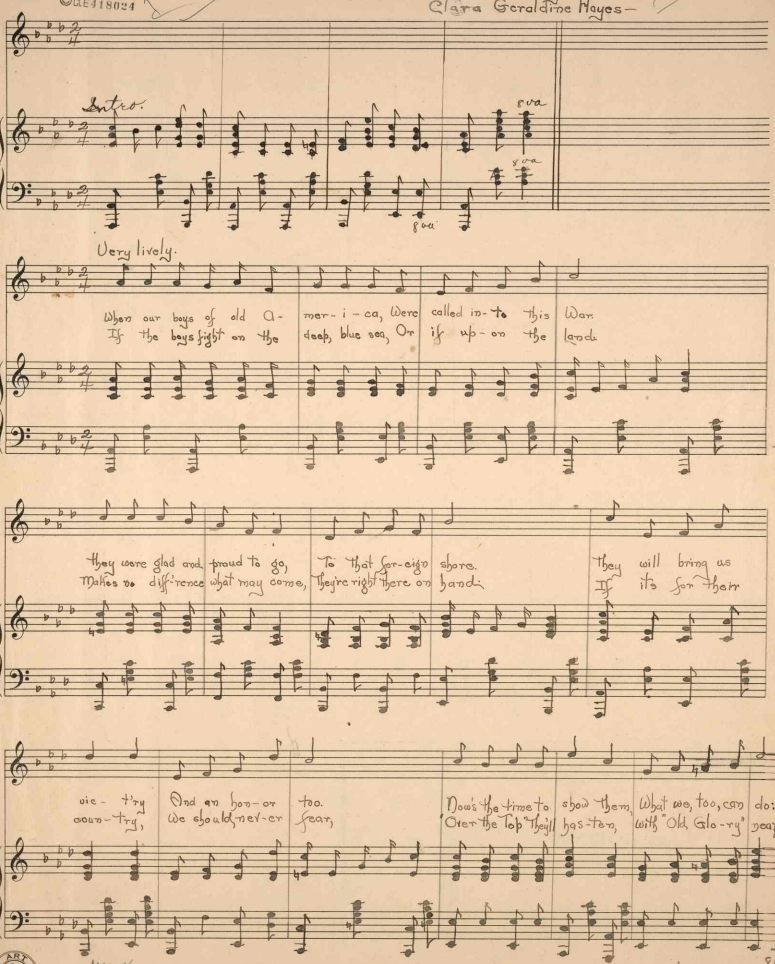
— Lovingly dedicated to my brothers, Wilbur & Howard Hayes —

JAN 11 1918
©CLE418024

— Somewhere in France —

Words & Music By
Clara Geraldine Hayes —



Intro.

8va

Very lively.

When our boys of old A- mer- i - ca, Were called in- to this War.
If the boys fight on the deep, blue sea, Or if up- on the land.

they were glad and proud to go, To that for-eign shore. They will bring us Makes no diff'rence what may come, They're right there on hand. If it's for their vic- t'ry And an hon- or too. Now's the time to show them, What we, too, can do:-

coun- try, We should nev- er fear, 'Over the Top' They'll has- ten, with "Old Glo- ry" near.

8va

ART BRAND
No. 4.
M1646
.H

-Chorus- Lively-

Some-where in France they're fight- ing, Stri-ving for me and you. They might be cold and

F-P.

Hun-gry- Your boy may be there too. If you will all do your part, they'll make the ene- my dance. And they'll come back vic- tor- ious to us from "Some-where in

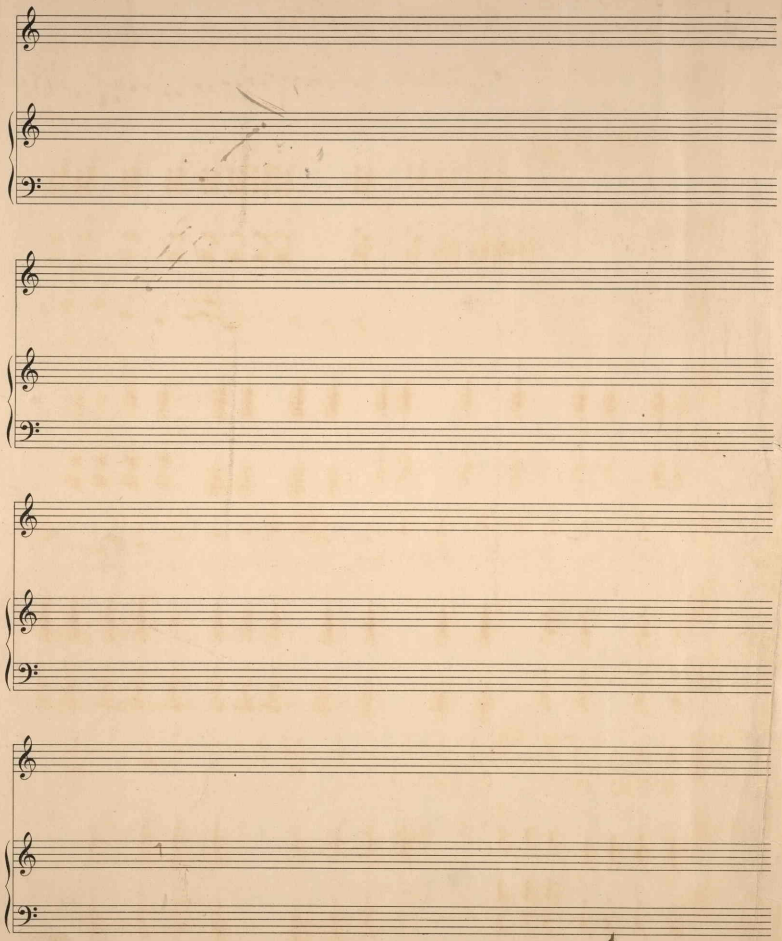
8va

1. France."

2. France.

8va.

8va



421564