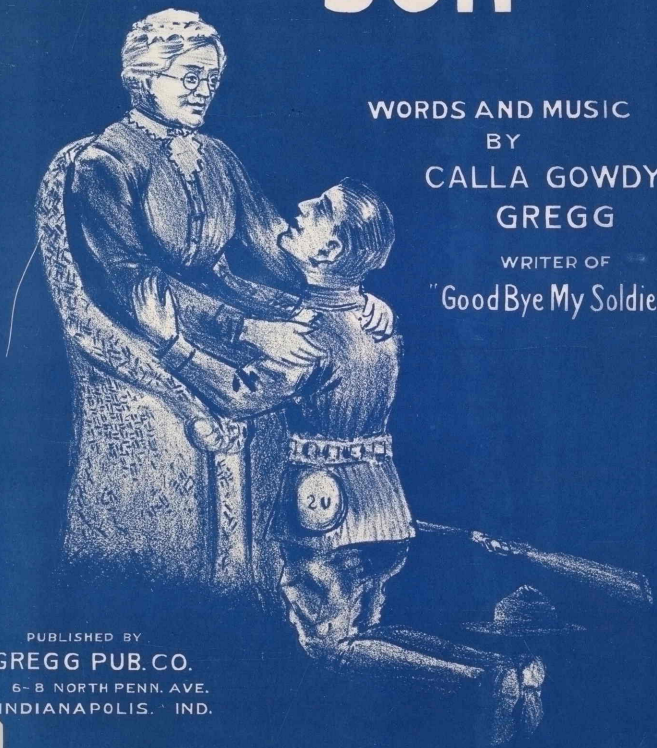
NOV 21 1917

EVERY MOTHER'S SON



WORDS AND MUSIC
BY CALLA GOWDY
GREGG WRITER OF
"Good Bye My Soldier Boy"

PUBLISHED BY GREGG PUB. CO.
6-8 NORTH PENN. AVE.
INDIANAPOLIS. IND.

M 1646
G

©CLE411906

Every Mother's Son

Words and Music by CALLA GOWDY GREGG

Marcia Moderato

f mf

VOICE

Moth-er dear, your tears are fall-ing, But o-ver land and sea, I can

TILL READY marcato mp

Oh, think of this, dear moth-er, When I am far a-way, Your hear my coun-try call-ing, To the fight for lib-er-ty. Oh, hold me close, dear mother, Just boy is not a cow-ard, And you would not have me stay. I am go-ing now, dear mother, And as we used to be, And dream I am a boy a-gain, And kneel-ing at your knee.

soon I'll cross the sea, But when you say your ev'ning pray'r, O, then re-mem-ber me.

M1646
.G.

Copyright MCMXVII by Calla Gowdy Gregg.

CHORUS

marcato

We are com - ing, Un-cle Sam - my, Yes, com - ing ev - 'ry

mf

one, We are read - y, Un-cle Sam - my, Yes, ev - 'ry moth - er's son. Long wave Old

Glo - ry, And for her we would die, Then kiss me moth er once a - gain, Be - fore we say Good - bye.

f

Don't Let Your Foot Slip, Hiram

Words & Music by NORMA GREGG

CHORUS

out for the girl with the twinkle in her eye, Don't let your foot slip Hi-ram. Look out for the girl who can't make her eyes be-have, Don't let your foot slip Hi-ram. Look out for the girl who will look at you and sigh, She is a si-ren, Look out for the girl who is out for the girl who will say, "You are so brave," She is a si-ren, Look out for the girl who is Copyright MCMXVII by Gregg Pub. Co.

GOOD-BYE MY SOLDIER BOY

Words & Music by CALLA GOWDY GREGG

CHORUS

Here they come, those fight-ing Sam - mies; They are he - roes, ev - ry one From those of the snow - y North - land, To the boys 'neath the South-ern sun. Go and

International Copyright secured Copyright MCMXVII by Calla Gowdy Gregg British Copyright secured

420351