A Reveille

Words and Music by
Jima Harrington

A-mer-i-ca, a-wake!
A-mer-i-ca, a-rise!
A-mer-i-ca, to arms!
A-mer-i-ca, go forth!
A-mer-i-ca, look up,

'Tis Lib-er-ty that calls, Au-toc-ra-cy in sell-ish reign,
Stretch forth thy bon-tious hands. Thou must not dream while moth-ers weep
Thy sons for free-dom give. Un-furl the flag a-cross the sea,
Thy des-ti-ny bid-fill:— "Make safe the world" thy he-roes give
And pray God speed the day When cru-el wars for-ev-er cease,

Do-min-ion o'er the world would gain:— Oh help to crush its pow'r
In blood stained lands, and vig-il keep O'er hun-gry home-less babes
Blest em-blem of de-moc-ra-cy Fair play and rights of men,
That free-mens rights may ev-er live Au-toc-ra-cy must fall
And na-tions make a last-ing peace, Through Coun-cils of just men, 1st, 3d, 4th, and 5th verses only. 2nd, verse only.

Oh help to crush its pow'r
O'er hun-gry home-less ~~babes~~ babes.
Fair play and rights of men
Au-toc-ra-cy must fall.
Through Coun-cils of just men.

A Reveille

America, awake!
'Tis Liberty that calls.
Autocracy, in selfish reign,
Dominion o'er the world would gain:—
Oh, help to crush its now'r,
Oh, help to crush its now'r.

America, arise!
Stretch forth thy bounteous hands,
Thou must not dream while mothers weep
In blood stained lands and vigil keep
O'er hungry, homeless babes,
O'er hungry, homeless babes.

America, to arms!
Thy sons for freedom give
Unfurl thy flag across the sea,—
Blest emblem of Democracy,
Fair play and rights of men,
Fair play and rights of men.

America, go forth!
Thy destiny fulfill:—
"Make safe the world," thy heroes give
That free men's rights may ever live;
Autocracy must fall
Autocracy must fall

America, look up!
And pray God speed the day
When cruel war forever cease
And nations make a lasting peace

Through Councils of Just men,
Through Councils of just men.
