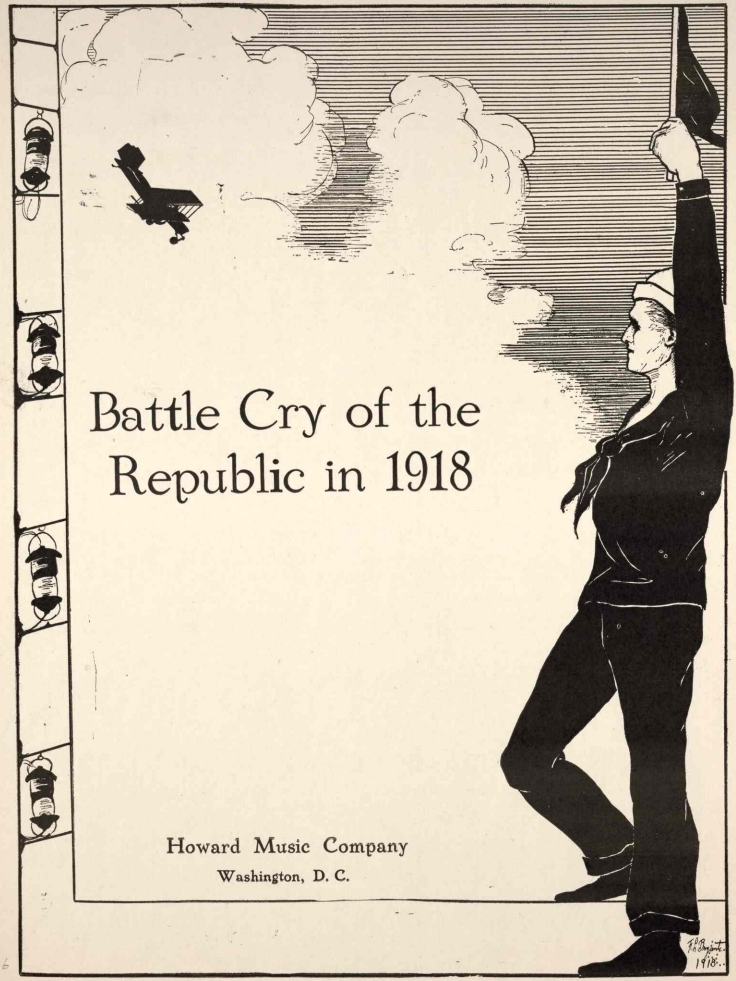
©CIE452669

LYRIC BY E. B. ASHCRAFT

JUN 19 1919

MUSIC BY ROY HARTZELL



Battle Cry of the Republic in 1918

Howard Music Company
Washington, D. C.

M1646
.H

Battle Cry Of The Republic In 1918

E. B. ASHCRAFT

ROY HARTZELL

Marcia moderato

ff

1. We will help our moth - er Eng-land, and will help dear sis - ter France; We'll help the cause of
2. We would free the life of peas-ant, we would loose the grip of King; An ol - ive branch to mp

free-dom on the bat - tle field ad - vance. We're not in the war for con-quest, but we're in the war for all man-kind we'd glad - ly come and bring. We will stand or fall to - geth - er by our prin-ci-ples of right; And we're march - ing on to Ber - lin! You know they've sub-ma-old, And we're march - ing on to Ber - lin! We've pledged our lives and

Copyright, 1918, by E. B. Ashcraft

rined us, and have man-y chil-dren drowned, The tears of man-y a moth-er have been shed at man-y a mound; The for-tunes and our sa-cred hon-or, too; And in this hour of per-il just ex-pect us to be true. On sea has swal-lowed man-y, and may swal-low man-y more; But we're march-ing on to Ber-lin!

bat-tle-fields of Eur-ope by the Red and White and Blue, We'll go march-ing on to Ber-lin!

CHORUS

We're fight-ing for jus-tice and for lib-er-ty, We're fight-ing for jus-tice and for lib-er-ty; We're fight-ing for jus-tice and for lib-er-ty, Democ-ra-cy is march-ing on! We're en!

463131