Love and War
Song

For my Land my flag and you.

Words by Daniel Olsen Jr

Music by John A. Heaton

I have come to say good bye sweet-heart for I am called a-way to join our coun-try's fray I Now her sweet-heart's Land-ed safe in France to do his lit-tle bit to fight he'll nev-er quit with can no lon-ger stay To you I will re-turn dear heart if God my Life will spare There's heart of steel and grit He knows they're there to teach the Huns truth and hum-an-i-ty But no girl in this world to me that can with you com-pare Hark! hark! the bug-le's sound-ing while his can-not tell mid shot and shell Just what his fate will be While can-nons roar he's long-ing for the Lov'd one wept and sighed And as he wiped her tears a-way Brave-ly to her re-plied.

girl he Left be-hind and hop-ing that his part-ing words are al-ways on her mind.

CHORUS

Good-bye lit-tle Sweet-heart the bug-le bids me go Love me still what'-eer be-tide while we face the foe Fight-ing to save our nat-ion our all-ied com-rades too ~~For~~ To show them our might, its my du-ty to fight for my Land my flag and you.
