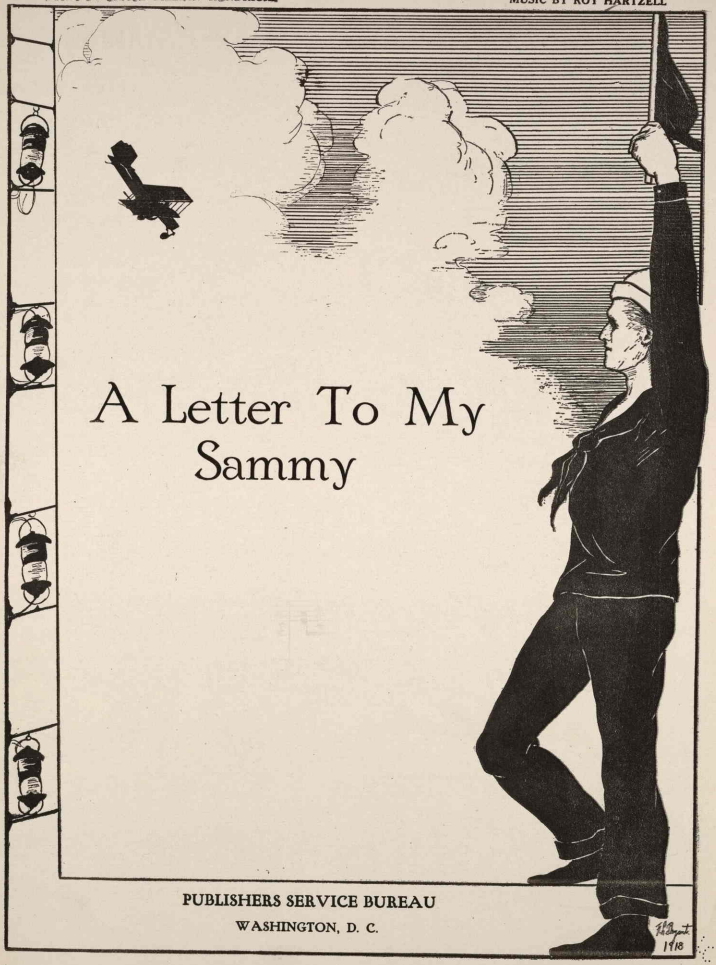
©CLE450077
APR 11 1919

LYRIC BY GRACE LILLIAN HENDRICKS

MUSIC BY ROY HARTZELL



A Letter To My Sammy

PUBLISHERS SERVICE BUREAU
WASHINGTON, D. C.

M1646
.H

"A LETTER TO MY SAMMY"

GRACE LILLIAN HENDRICKS

ROY HARTZELL

Marcia

TILL READY

ff

Just a few lines to tell you That since you went a - way The Ah! I'll not write of sad - ness! The best of news I'll tell: Our Braveman, when there are bat - tles, I know you'll glad - ly go The world has lost its sun - shine, And all is drab and gray. I home town is a - boom - ing, Your folks down home are well. I Stars and Stripes be - fore you To face the heath - en foe! Dear, can - not live with - out you Thro' all the years to be: May saw your gray-haired moth - er; Her love goes 'cross the sea May do not think of dy - ing, But of our home to be; God

mp

Copyright 1918 by Grace Lillian Hendricks.

God bless you, pro - tect you, And send you back to me!
God bless you, pro - tect you, And send you back to me!
will bless you, pro - tect you; And you'll come back to me!

CHORUS

The years may be long and wear - y, But I'm wait - ing here for you. And when the war is o - ver, You'll be sail - ing home a - cross the blue. I will love the ship that brings you A - cross the lone - ly sea; For God will bless you, pro - tect you, And you'll come home to me! The 456270