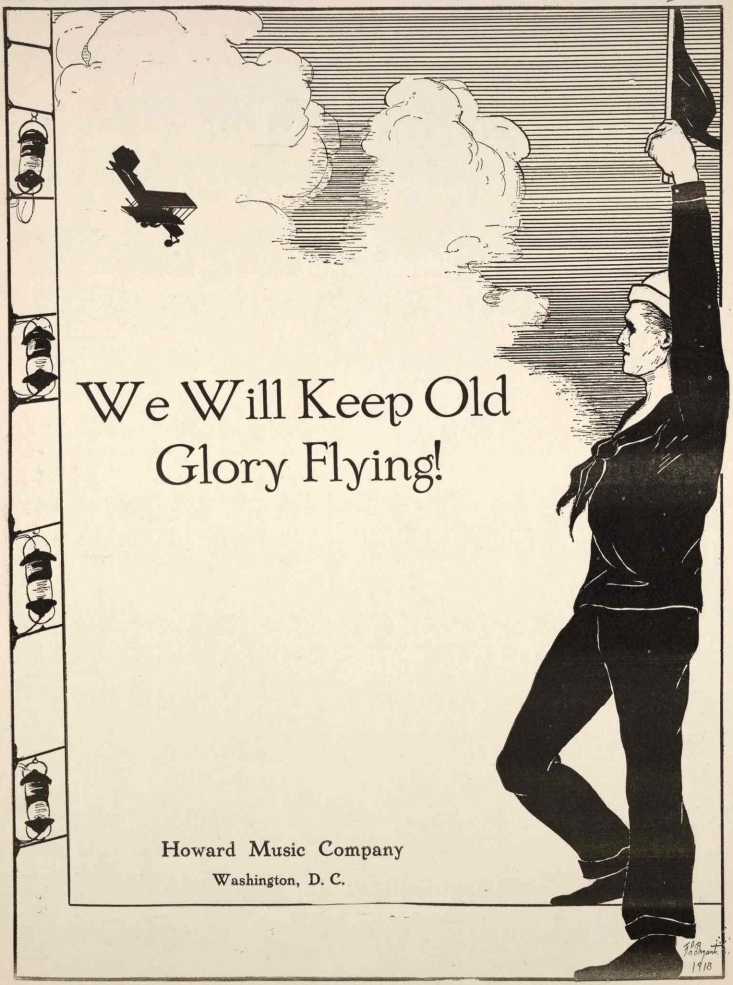
©CLE 445750
APR -2 1919

LYRIC BY JOHN J. GILL

MUSIC BY ROY HARTZELL



M1626
.H

We Will Keep Old Glory Flying!

JOHN J. GILL

ROY HARTZELL

Tempo di Marcia

ff

We are leav-ing to-day the dear old U. S. A., For the strick-en bat-tle
We'll keep Old Glo-ry fly-ing, and cross the Riv-er Rhine, And we'll send the Ger-mans

mp

fields of war-ring France. To fight for de-moc-ra-cy And re-store the lib-er-flee-ing to Ber-lin. We're a hun-dred mil-lion strong And we're com-ing right aty Of rav-aged Bel-gium and France. We are near-ing there to-long To fight for our vic-to-ry! We will sail the sev-en day, A mil-lion on the way, And mil-lions more to come a-long. We are seas And set old Ser-bia free Be-fore we ev-er will re-turn. When the

Copyright, 1918, by John J. Gill

in the fight for jus-tice and for right And we're in it to the end, Ger-ma - ny!
war is done, the Al-lies ev-'ry one For A - mer-i - ca their prais - es will sing.

CHORUS

Hip, hip, hur-rah! for the U. S. A., And the good old Stars and Stripes!

Hip, hip, hur-ray! for the U. S. A., And the boys who are leav-ing for France. We have heard our coun-try's call, and we're go-ing one and all, To fight for lib - er - ty! We know that might's not right, that is why we're going to fight For the good old U. S. A!

455861