AUG 26 1918

SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE WITH YOU

©CLE 429852

Lyric by Sadie Elinor Watts

Music by
E. S. S. HUNTINGTON

Published by
SADIE ELINOR WATTS
Caldwell, Kansas

Somewhere In France With You

Lyric by
SADIE ELINOR WATTS

Music by
E. S. S. HUNTINGTON

Marcia Moderato

Piano

f

I had a dream last night, dear heart, Would that my dream were true, I
Our fair Col - um - bia's heart is wrung, for sons who sailed a - way, But

p

cir - cled thro' a maz - y waltz, Some - where in France, with you, The moth - ers dear, and sweet-hearts here, Can on - ly wait and pray, But lights were low, The mus - ic rolled, In rhyth - mic soft re - frain, And right must win, And then the end, Of wars, and part - ing pain, We'll in my ear you whisp - ered low, Love's old sweet song a - gain.

make the ver - y wel - kin ring, When you come home a - gain.

Copyright MCMXVIII by Sadie Elinor Watts, Caldwell, Kansas

Chorus

Some-where in France, Some-where in France, I'd give the world with you to be, And by your side with cour - age high, I'd fight for vic - to - ry, On ev - 'ry land and ev - 'ry sea, Would fly the ban - ner of the free, Ov - er the top, dear heart with you, I'd fol - low the Red White and Blue. Blue.

457020