

Know all men by these presents that I Samuell Prime (the son of Samuell Prime of Rowley deceas^d) being of twenty one years of age and Sarah Prime the daughter of the above said Samuell deceas^d aged eighteen years and upward do both of us acknowledg that we have received our full portions of Samuell Platts both in our fathers estate and in our grandfathers estate and also in our mothers thirds according as it was devided and set out to us by men comissioned by the Honoured Judg of probates we for ever quit our uncle Sam' Platts as administrators

SAMUEL PRIME [SEAL]

SARAH PRIME [SEAL]

Ack before Bart. Gedney Apr 14 1697

ESSEX CO. PROBATE OFFICE, LIBER 4, FOL. 157.

Captain Moses Bradstreet in his will of August 16th 1690, admitted to probate September 30th 1690, mentioned his wife as follows:

“To my Dear & beloved wife my will is that ye contract before our marriage be fulfilled by my executors that all ye estate reall & personal of hers & her children by her former husband be at her dispose for ye benefit of her & her children and to be paid by her according as ye court settled it: Also that ye fourscore pounds she was to receive by s^d contract be made up one hundred pounds so much to be made up in household stufte, as I receved wth her twenty pounds of it in mony & ye rest in cattle & corn such as I received with her Also I give her thirty pounds more one half in money ye other half in corn & cattell to be paid by my executors to ye bringing up of our young child Jonathan.”