©CLE415589
JAN 28 1918

DEDICATED TO COMPANY 134 MASSACHUSETTS STATE GUARDS OF RAYNHAM, MASS.

WAITING FOR YOU AND ME

PATRIOTIC MARCH SONG

WORDS AND MUSIC

By

THOMAS W. HIGHLING

PRICE 15 CENTS

BOSTON
C. W. THOMPSON & CO.

M1646
.H

Dedicated to Company 134, Massachusetts State Guards, of Raynham, Mass.

Waiting For You And Me

Words and Music by THOMAS W. HIGHLING

Marcia con spirito

ff

An A - mer-i - can lad, said to his This A - mer-i - can lad, said to his mf

Dad, I'm not old e - nough to go to war ——— But Dad, I will tell you what I would do ——— I

Dad, if I were you, I'd wear a Kha-ki or Blue, Now that's what would get Un-cle Dan To fight for Un-cle Sam And go a -

Copyright, MCMXVIII, by Thomas W. Highling

I would do; For our Al - lies' cause is just, And cross with you; For our Al - lies' cause is just, And help to fight we must, When you know dan - ger threat - ens our help to fight we must, Fight, for - ward a - gainst the powers of shores. So, Dad, if I were you (were you) I know what I would wrong. So, Dad, if I were you (were you) I know what I would do (would do) I'd fight for Old Glo - ry, The Red, White, and Blue.

do (would do) I'd fight for Old Glo - ry, The Red, White, and Blue.

CHORUS (Unison)

If I were in Dad's place I'd go (I'd go,) I would

ff

take a gun and meet the foe (the foe,) Our Allies a-cross the sea (the sea,) Are wait-ing for you and me (and me,) If I were in Dad's place I'd go.

ffz

423558