©CLE414596 C L DEC 17 1917

Lyric & Music by Isabelle Horan

This is a Little American Red Cross

March tempo

Introd.

Voice

I Verse you've gone boys to fight, yes to fight for your coun-try you II Verse Sol-diers and sai-lors are fight-ing to-geth-er For A-left here with hearts brave and true ..... In for-eign mer-i-ca's name they will stand ..... The coun-try's lands your fight-ing hands Will make your Un-cle Sam-my so call, found them one and all ..... Tak-ing up a gun for their

M1646 .H

B.F.W. No. 52.

Made in Germany for The B. F. Wood Music Co., Boston, New-York, London.

proud of you ---- your moth-ers and sis-ters and sweet-hearts you've na-tive land .... Each sol-dier and sai-lor has left here be-left be-hind Are all might-y lone-some for you ---- But a-hind him a mai-den who 'tis keep-ing his heart ---- She'll mer-i-ca is rea-dy ---------- To fight for the do her bit for her coun-try .... And when the call comes she'll be

Chorus

Red, White, and Blue ------ When you sing for your first to start ------ moth-er, you know there's an-oth-er Who's rea-dy to come - -

- - there to you - - - - She has count-ed each day since you went a-way, And her sad-sad heart is ten-der and true She's just been pa-tient-ly wait-ing The call of the na-tion to do what she can in this cause ..... She'll come to you, she'll help you too, For she's a lit-tle a-mer-----i-can Red Cross------- 421/53