GO, MY BOY.

'Tis your country and 'tis mine, Go, my boy; go, my boy.
Be a soldier, you must try, Go, my boy; go, my boy,
And I love you, think of me, Go, my boy; go, my boy.
I will always think of thee, On the land or on the sea,
Tho' 'tis hard to go from home, Be a man where'er you roam
You are young and strong and bold; You can fight to save the fold

GO, MY BOY.--Concluded.
