We're go-ing a-cross the sea to get the Ger - mans, We are sending troops a-broad to fight for peace — They will
The Kai-ser started war thru-out all Eu - rope, And he came here to em-broil us in his plot — His

do it with a will, and they'll teach the Kaiser Bill, That on this world he can-not have a lease — Au-spies in their crude way, mistook Sammy for a jay, When they thot he'd fall for rot like "Me und Gott" — We retoc - ra - cy must go in - to the junk pile — It's free-dom and De-moc - ra - cy, please note — The mem-ber well the sunk-en Lus - i - tan - ia — We re-mem-ber Bel-gium, France and all the blight — Since old

Em - per's Kings and such will not a-mount to much, When the 'Mer-i-can arm-y gets the Kaiser's goat. — Glo - ry, is un - furl'd, it pro-claims to all the world, Hu - man - i - ty, De - moc-ra - cy and Right. —

The U - nit - ed States, it is a mighty na - tion, — And in a cris - is it will nev - er fail. — Our p–f

dear old Un - cle Sam is as peaceful as a lamb, But when he's roused he surely is a whale — We have the money, men and all the mak - ings — Of the greatest army that the world has seen — Our boys are tru - ly game, and they'll dim the Kaiser's fame, And he'll wish he'd nev - er seen a sub - ma - rine — — Yes he'll wish he'd nev - er seen a Sub - ma - rine. The rine.
