AMERICA, DEAR HOMELAND.

Written by
A. M. NOBLE.

Composed by DONALD JACKSON

A — mer — i — ca, A — mer — i — ca, dear home land glad and free With A — mer — i — ca, A — mer — i — ca, Un furl from sea to sea The
A — mer — i — ca A — mer — i — ca, Dear moth — er — land so free, Thine thank — ful heart and one ac — cord We pledge our — selves to Thee. Let flag so bright, the flag of light, Of glo — rious lib — er — ty. From is our love, our lives are thine, To live or die for Thee. Who

O the — er na — tions boast their might, Their glo — ry and their fame Our moun — tain peak, from prai — rie bread, The Stars and Stripes do flame Our e — qual jus — tice, peace and right, And free — dom doth pro — claim; Our pride is thine, A — mer — i — ca And stain — less is thy name.

pride, it is A — mer — i — ca And death — less is its fame.
pride shall be A — mer — i — ca To guard thy sa — cred name.
