©CLE426293

JUN -1 1918

BE A PILGRIM

(AND NOT A RAM)

SONG.

WORDS BY GEORGE CORDELL.

MUSIC BY
CHAS. L. JOHNSON.

PUBLISHED BY GEORGE CORDELL
KEARNEY, MO.

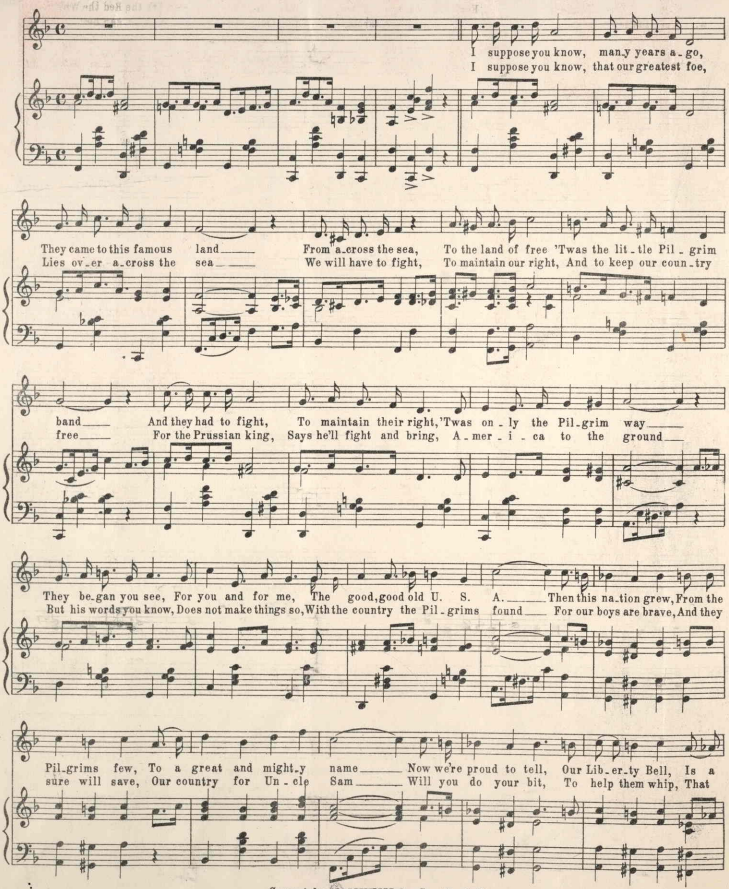
5

SELLING AGENTS.
CHAS. L. JOHNSON MUSIC CO.
KANSAS CITY, MO.

M1696

Be a Pilgrim
(AND NOT A RAM)

GEO. CORDELL



Copyright MCMXVIII by Geo. Cordell.

tok_en of our fame For our starry flag, We will have to brag, It's the Red the White and wicked old Prussian ram And when we are through Re_mem_ber the few, Who be_gan our country

Blue Un_cle Sam's in need, Of us all in_deed, What are you going to do free So then for our pay, We will gain the way, For the world's De_moc_ra_cy

CHORUS.

Are you a Pil_grim I am a Pil_grim, Of this present time and day I am always glad and so is my dad, For to do the Pilgrim way If not a Pil_grim Why be a Pil_grim, And do act for Uncle

1 2

Sam I would like to see, Ev_'ry_bod_y be a Pilgrim and not a ram. Are you a ram.

452232