Introd.

In this land of the free, we will all a - gree, That what Sher-man said was right In eighteen six - ty two, for the Red, White and Blue, He was not a - fraid to fight For we're made of the stuff that nev - er took a bluff, That's what made us what we are War is hell that is

In this land of the free, we will all a - gree, That we're not a - fight - ing for the right With our boys brave and strong, we'll go march-ing right a - long, In the cause of peace for all And we miss them each true, but to me and to you, There are things that are worse than war.

day, but we want them to stay, Un_til all the ty_rants fall.

CHORUS

We are friendly to all to the great and the small for jus_tice and hon_or we stand Un_til vict'_ry is won, we will use ev_'ry gun, If it takes ev_'ry man in our land When all is said and done, and we find that we have won, Then the Kai_ser in some oth_er land will dwell If he lives to see that day, then to Uncle Sam he'll say, What Sherman said was right for war is hell. We are hell.

WE ARE ALL IN THE SAME BOAT NOW

CHORUS

We are all in the same boat now and there is lots of work to do No matter whose to blame, we all are in the game, So it is squarely up to you For each one must do his share, on land or in the air, So choose the work you
